

WOMEN'S FEDERATION FOR WORLD PEACE, USA

Graphic Design Intern

LOCATION: Combination working remotely from home and from NYC office

HOURS: 8 to 15 hours per week, flexible

COMPENSATION: Unpaid

Women's Federation for World Peace (WFWP) is a non-governmental organization in general consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations and in association with the UN Department of Public Information. As an organization of women, we adhere to the principle that by working together, taking initiative, and empowering one another across traditional lines of race, culture, and religion we can create healthy families and resolve the complex problems of our societies and world.

INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

WFWP interns are an integral part of our team and will gain first-hand experience in how a national non-profit organization is run and contributing to it on the staff level. The Graphic Design Intern will be instrumental in working with our team to create dynamic and inviting graphics and videos to use on the WFWP website, Facebook page, printed promo materials for events, newsletter, curriculum and other areas. A strong candidate must be able to balance their own creative voice with appropriately portraying WFWP's brand.

Though we are happy to accommodate interns' schedules, we require interns to be reliable and consistent in their commitment. If applicable, we will work with you to facilitate receiving academic credit for your internship.

DESIRABLE ATTRIBUTES

- Strong interest in WFWP's work
- Familiarity with vision, mission and Founders of WFWP
- Prior experience and/or education in graphic design a strong plus
- Well organized with strong attention to details
- Ability to work well in a team
- Self-motivated and ability to work independently
- Willingness to learn quickly and juggle multiple assignments
- Proficiency in design software such as Illustrator
- Experience with video recording and editing

HOW TO APPLY

Send your resume and a sample of your work to Katarina Connery, kconnery@wfp.us, with the subject line "Graphic Design Intern." If selected, we will contact you for an interview.
